State Sup rintendent of Education and Major W L Gl.z. Deliver Short but Practical Addresses.

A goodly number of school trustees and school teachers met in the Courthouse on last Saturday morning at half-past ten o'clock in accordance with the call of Superintendent of Education S. R. Mellichamp for the purpose of organizing a trustees association and a teachers ass cution State Superintendent of Elucation O. B. Martin was present by invitation, and delivered a very interesting address to the trustees and the teachers. He endorsed most warm y the obj cts of the meeting, and said he was satis fied that much good would come from the organization of the trustees and the teachers into organizations. Mr. Martin's speech was intensely practi cal and was appreciated by all pres-

∠ At the conclusion of Mr. Martin's spech, Superintendent Meilichamp called on Major W. L Glaze, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Ocangeburg city schools, to give his experience as a trustee, which the general Mejor proceeded to do in his characteristic, entertaining way. . He gave teachers and trustees much good advice, and said he heartily end reed the objects for which the meeting was called. No man in the county is better able to speak on the subject of schools than Major W. L. Glaz: He has been a trustee of the Orangeburg Graded Schools for years, and the success of that school is due in a time had come when he would have great measure to, his wise counsel and judgment.

At the conclusion of Major Glaze's speech, which was enjoyed by all pres | years he had spent in Orangeburg, ent, the trustees and teachers separated and proceeded to organize county associations as requested by Superin- citizens. Another Bank A dispatsh from St. Matthews to The State under date of the 5th instant says the books of subscription to the stock of the Home Bank of St. Matthews were opened on Monday the 4th instant, and in an hour the entire capital stock was taken, and that too by local money. Duble the amount could have been secured, but the pro moters desire to make it a home in stitution and would not allow any one individual to take a large block of stock ! This enterprise like its sister, the St. Matthews Savings bank, is destined to become a success from the start. The St. Matthews Savings bank has more than trebled in it deposits within the past two years and is today in point of prosperity second to none in the county or State.

A Happy Marriage. Oa Wednesday evening, December seventh, a pretty home wedding was solemnized at the residence of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bizard, in the Sunny Plains section of Orangeburg County at which Miss Luella Bozard and Mr. Louis Stabler, two very popular young people, were happily married. Rev. M. F. Dukes officiated in his usual popular ceremony. It was a very quiet wedding only the relatives and a few near friends were present to witness the peremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a lovely white satin trimmed with spangled net, and was attended by her two friends Misses Betty Bezard and Maggie Oliver who were also dressed in white. After the ceremony a sumptious repast was served in the dining hall which all who were costiveness, etc. Gauranteed at any present heartily enjoyed. H.

Sometime ago Mr. E. M. Dukes, who lives at Lambrick Station on the Branchville and Bowman Railroad had his outbuildings destroyed by fire. The buildings contained Mr. Dukes supply of provisions and it was consumed. How the fire occurred is not known. The alarm of fire, which was sent in on Friday morning from Box 28, was caused by the burning of the roof of a small building in rear of Mr. J.
